

F Series

CLAY TREATERS

Clay treaters are installed upstream of filter/water separators to remove harmful surface active agents (surfactants), color, and additives from jet fuel.

Replaceable clay elements use adsorption to capture these contaminants, helping protect downstream coalescer cartridges and supporting consistent system performance.

Donaldson[®]
Facet[™]